

THE FROGS BY ARISTOPHANES

An Alia College Production

Performance Details

Thur 27th April, 7pm

Fri 28th April, 7pm

Adult: $12

Conc/Child: $8

Alia Students: $2

Auburn South Primary School, 419 Tooronga Rd, Hawthorn East.

Ok... Well, the first thing you come to is a great big bottomless lake. There's an old ferryperson who'll take you across in a tiny boat, about so big, for two bucks. After that you come to the snakes and the wild beasts-thousands of them. And then you come to the Great Meme Marsh and the Eternal River of Apple Terms and Conditions- you'll find some pretty unsavoury characters floundering about in that: people who have wronged a guest, or punched their brother in the jaw, or committed perjury, or fare evaded, or left a light on during Earth Hour. After that you'll hear the sound of flute-playing and you'll come out into brilliant daylight, just like it is up here. Farther on you'll see plantations of myrtle, and happy bands of revellers, men and women, tripping around and clapping their hands and so on.

Welcome to Hell.

TICKET BOOKINGS!
[www.trybooking.com/
PNKR](http://www.trybooking.com/PNKR)